MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.

He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.

Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.

Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

POWERS OF U. S. DISTRICT COURTS IN BANKRUPTCY IN MATTERS OF INJUNCTION.

U. S. District Court, West'n Dist., Penna.

In the matter of Creditors' Petition to declare Hugh Campbell a bankrupt.

Congress, by the Constitution of the United States, had the right to bring all parties, estates and interests connected with a bankrupt into the District Court of the United States as a Court of Bankruptcy. And to confer upon the District Courts the authority to suspend all and every proceeding elsewhere; and to command obedience to their mandates, exclusive of all other jurisdictions. But by the Bankrupt act of the 2d March, 1867, they have not done so.

This act does not authorize the District Courts of the United States to issue injunctions to State Courts, nor to the actors or parties litigating before them.

The act of 2d March, 1793, prohibits it; and this act is not repealed by the bankrupt law, either in express terms or by implication.

Courts of a State are independent tribunals, not deriving their authority from the same sovereign, and as regards the District Court of the United States, foreign tribunals everyway its equal, and over which the District Court has no supervisory power. The Bankrupt law does not change the relation of these courts to each other.

The authority conferred by the 40th section, to issue an injunction against the bankrupt, and all other persons, has no reference to the State Courts, and it is a limitation of the sweeping provisions of the first section.

It was designed to protect the property of a party not yet declared a bankrupt, until his bankruptcy has been legally established.

Liens, by the Bankrupt law, are held sacred, and the creditor is expressly protected by the 14th, 15th, and 20th sections of the act.

The Bankrupt's final certificate discharges his person and future acquisitions; but the lein creditor is entitled to satisfaction out of the property subject to lien.

M'CANDLESS, J.—I feel the grave responsibility which attaches to the decision which is about to be announced. In construing a new and untried statute, and establishing the practice to be observed in its proper administration, there must necessarily be much diversity of opinion among both lawyers and judges. The interests involved are frequently so large and the principles so important, that inextricable confusion must result from an unsound interpretation of the legislation of Congress. This bankrupt act, is, in my judgment, highly beneficial to both the debtor and the creditor. It was designed to relieve the one from oppressive liabilities which render him unfit to contribute to the productive wealth of the country; and it affords to the other an assurance that all the property of the debtor, except what from motives of humanity he is permitted to retain, shall be honestly devoted to the payment of his debts. With a fraudulent debtor it is wisely and justly stringent,—compelling a full discovery and surrender of his assets, for the benefit of his creditors under peril of imprisonment for contempt, which, in the Courts of the United States, is a penalty not to be disregarded.

The present is a case upon creditors' petition to declare Hugh Campbell a bankrupt. Numerous acts of bankruptcy have been assigned, all of which are denied, and a trial by jury awarded. Many judgments of large amount, the validity of which is not questioned, have been entered in the Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong County; and they are all prior in date to the period when the bankrupt law went into operation. Upon final process, a sale of real estate by the Sheriff has been made, and $29,200.00 realized and brought into Court for distribution. Under these circumstances our extraordinary power of injunction was invoked to restrain not only the plaintiffs in these judgments, but the courts of the State and their executive officers, from further proceeding, with the design to bring all the property of the bankrupt into this Court, as a Court of Bankruptcy, for division among all his creditors. The injunction against the Sheriff and the parties was granted, with leave, instanter, for a motion to dissolve, that we might ascertain whether, under the bankrupt law, we have the right to interfere with the courts of the State in the legitimate exercise of their functions.

After much reflection I am satisfied we have not, nor with the actors or parties litigating before them. The first section of the act is wide in its scope, and would seem to bring all parties, estates and interests connected with the bankrupt into a common Forum or center, and to do so, it is contended, that Congress, by implication, conferred upon the District Courts of the United States, the authority to suspend all and every proceeding elsewhere, and to command obedience to their mandates, exclusive of all other jurisdictions. This, by virtue of the 5th clause of the 8th section of the 1st article of the Constitution of the United States, granting the power "to establish uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States," Congress had the right to do—but they have not done so.

Staring them in the face was the act of the 2d of March, 1793, section 5th, expressly declaring "nor shall a writ of injunction be granted to stay proceedings in any court of a State." There is nothing in the bankrupt law, in terms repealing this statute, and the authority conferred by the 40th section, to issue an injunction against the bankrupt, and all other persons excludes the presumption that it is to be exercised without limitation. Other persons here expressed has reference to parties interfering with the property of an individual not yet adjudicated an involuntary bankrupt, and which is to be preserved inviolate, until his bankruptcy has been legally ascertained. It does not refer to the courts of a State, or to their executive officers. It was not designed to arrest the whole machinery of another and in lependent forum, which is exercising its best efforts to marshal the assets of the debtor, and after discharging the legitimate liens to which they are subject, reserving the residue, as a fund for the assignee in bankruptcy.

Liens, by this law, as they should be, are held sacred. To say that the vigilant creditor, who by his dilligence has secured his debt, and has a valid lien upon the property of the bankrupt, shall come in with all the other creditors, pro rata, would be a perversion of the purposes of Congress in the passage of the act. No right acquired by the creditor is affected or impaired. The 14th section expressly protects him. The assignee has authority, under the direction of this court, to discharge any lien upon any property, real or personal, and is authorized to sell the same, subject to such lien or other incumbrances. By the 15th section he is permitted to sell all unincumbered estates, real and personal on such terms as he thinks most for the interest of the creditors. Where there is a lien on real or personal property the 20th section admits the holder of the lien as a creditor in bankruptcy, for the balance of the debt, after deducting the value of the property, to be ascertained by agreement or sale; or the creditor may release or convey his claim to the assignee, and be permitted to prove his whole debt in bankruptcy.

These several sections are distinct recognitions by Congress of the sanctity of liens, obtained before the inception of proceedings in bankruptcy, and they control, and are a limitation of the sweeping provisions of the first section. It is among the elementary principles with regard to the construction of statutes that every section, provision and clause of a statute shall be expounded by a reference to every other. The most general and absolute terms of one section may be qualified and limited by conditions and exceptions contained in another, so that all may stand together.

All liens, then, remain intact. The bankrupt's final certificate operates to discharge his person and future acquisitions, while at the same time, the mortgage, or other lien creditor, shall be permitted to have their satisfaction out of the property mortgaged or subject to lien. A legal right without a remedy would be an anomaly in the law:—7 Howard, 623. It is true that the first section of the act declares that the jurisdiction conferred on the District Court of the United States, shall extend to "all cases and controversies arising between the bankrupt and any creditor or creditors who shall claim any debt or demand under the bankruptcy." But as the Supreme Court of the United States say, in that very able odinion delivered by my brother Mr. Justice Grier, in the case of Peck vs. Jennes, before quoted in 7 Howard, the Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong County have full and complete jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; and its jurisdiction had attached long before any act of bankruptcy was committed. It is an independent tribunal, not deriving its authority from the same sovereign, and, as regards the District Court, a foreign forum, in every way its equal. The District Court has no supervisory power over it.

When the jurisdiction of a court, and the right of a plaintiff to prosecute his suit in it, have once attached, that right cannot be arrested or taken away by proceedings in another court. These rules have their foundation not merely in comity but in necessity. For if one may enjoin the other may retort by injunction, and thus the parties be without remedy; being liable to a process or contempt in one if they dare to proceed in the other. Neither can one take property from the custody of the other by replevin or other process, for this would produce a conflict of jurisdiction extremely embarrassing in the administration of justice.—The fact, therefore, that an injunction issues only to the Parties before the court and not to the court itself, is no evasion of the difficulties that are the necessary result of an attempt to exercise that power over a party who is a litigant in another and independent forum. It follows, therefore, that this court has no supervisory power the of Court of Common Pleas of Armstrong County, by injunction or otherwise, unless it is conferred by the bankrupt law. But we cannot discover any provision in that act which limits the jurisdiction of the state courts, or confers any power on the Bankrupt Court to supersede their jurisdiction or wrest property from the custody of their officers. On the contrary it provides, in the 14th section, that the assignee "may prosecute and defend all suits at law or in equity, pending at the time of adjucation of bankruptcy, in which such bankrupt is a party, in his own name, in the same manner and with the like effect, as they might have been prosecuted or defended by such bankrupt." In other words, as to the estate and property of the bankrupt, the assignee is subrogated to all his rights and responsibilities. The act sends the assignee to the State court, and admits its power over him. If confers no authority on this Court to restrain proceedings therein, by injunction or other process, much less to take property out of its custody or possession with a strong hand.

Finding no such grant of power either in direct terms or by necessary implication from any of the provisions of the bankrupt law, we are not at liberty to interpolate it on any supposed grounds of policy or expediency. We shall therefore be compelled to dissalve this and all other injunctions in similar cases.

I have not submitted this opinion to my brother Grier; but it may be a source of gratification to the profession to learn that, sitting with him, recently, at Circuit in Philadelphia, we conferred upon this case, and I am pleased to say that we concurred in the legal principles upon which it should be decided.

Injunction dissolved.—Legal Journal.

SUING AN EDITOR.—The editor of the Muscatine (Iowa) Courier was sued the other day. He took it philosophically. Hear him:

The dim recesses of our dark sanctum were illuminated yesterday by the rubicund visage of our friend Constable Scott. Our hair stood on end as with tears in his eyes he proceeded to read a very nicely printed blank on which our name figured conspicuously with that of Justice Klein. To cut short a long article, we were sued. Were you ever sued, reader? Yes! Nice, aint it? We put our pen behind our ear and looked wise at the officer. He trembled a little, for the idea of suing an editor was new to him. He never imagined that anything could be got out of "them fellows by suing—we didn't either. We don't now. The art of suing is a science. Young lawyers, anxious for suits, sometimes bring them for fun. Old ones, however, never do anything of the kind unless they can get something. We never knew anybody to get anything where there wasn't anything to be had. We hope they'll get a judgment against us, then we hope they'll take out an execution, and, lastly, we beg they'll execute it. If we've got any property we'd like to know it. They might garnishee a lot of fellows we owe around town. We guess they will. If they are sharp they will commence on George Seneider. We owe him for a glass of beer. If they get that it would help a little. Failing in this, we recommend them to attack a box of soiled paper collars we have on hand. They havn't been turned yet, and they might use the clean side. If this won't do, we are unable to help them.

VALLANDIGHAM ON BINGHAM.—Valandigham in a recent speech, thus referred to John A. Bingham:

"Bingham has chosen to speak of Vallandigham as 'sticking out his neck like a crane and glibbering like a ghost.' Let me tell him that it is not the ghost of Vallandingham which disturbs his serenity. Vallandigham is still alive and able in the flesh to vex his foes. [Applause.] It is the avenging spirt of that unhappy woman which flits before his vision at noon-day and glares across the meditations of his guilty conscience at midnight. It is the ghost of his victim that dogs his footsteps, mocking, tnreatening, tormenting and driving him to the doom of suicide. [Applause.] Says this counsellor of a murderous conspiracy, 'the negro is just as fit to vote as the tail end of a wheelbarrow,' meaning thereby the hard working Irishman. Has he not read the history of the Emerald Isle? Knows he nothing of her statesmen, her scholars and her warriors? Has he never heard of her orators, carrying multitudes captive with the resistless power of native eloquence? Or her poets, thrilling the hearts of humanity with their songs, and immortalizing the land of their birth and the race from which they sprang? Must the great, the gifted and the good be thus insulted by ignorance and malice? I shall dismiss the unmanly reviler of genius from further consideration, and if he wishes to discuss the merits of the Irishman and the African, let him produce for his negro pets a record that will compare with that of the people he assails."

PECULIARITIES OF HOTEL CLERKS.—Some one who has had experience writes: A hotel clerk is the embodiment and concentration of dignity. If his wealth is to be judged by his dignity, he must be possessed of several millions. Go and ask of these lodging-house potentates of the whereabouts of some friend of yours who may be an inmate of the house. Providing you are a major general or a congressman, you may receive a satisfactory answer. If you are a brigadier you may get a vague one. If a colonel, it may be necessary to wait three or four minutes. If a captain or lieutenant, six or seven. If a civilian—but words fail to convey an idea of the manner in which civilians are crushed and subjugated when they propound their inquiries. Not that he is rude. Oh, no: But there is a majesty, a loftiness, an exaltation, a consciousness of power in his words, looks and gestures which reduces the inquirer in his own estimation to the last verge of inferiority. Christians who are always strong to humble and abase themselves, whose besetting sin is pride, just come down here and take a dose or two of hotel clerk. Whenever I feel that I need taken down a peg or two, I have a never-failing remedy. I merely step into one of our first-class hotels and ask, "Is Mr. Smith stopping here?" and the great man, after the necessary delay, lifts his eyes, and I feel that I am a worm, and when he speaks I deem myself a Chinaman.

THE OLD WOMAN.

Once she was "Mother," and it was "Mother, I'm hungry," "Mother, put up my dinner," and "Mother," with her loving hands, would spread the bread and butter, and stow away the luncheon, and sew on the great patch, heart brimming with affection for the imperious little curly pate that made her so many steps and nearly distracted her with his boisterous mirth.

Now she is the "old woman," but she did not think it would ever come to that She looked on through the future years and saw her boy to manhood grown; and he stood transfigured in the light of her own beautiful love. Never was there a more noble son than he—honored of the world, and the staff of her declining years.

Aye, he was her support even then, but she did not know it. She never realized that it was her little boy that gave her strength for daily toil—that his slender form was all that upheld her over the brink of dark despair.—She only knew how she loved the child, and felt that, amidst the mist of age, his love would bear her gently through its infirmities to the dark hall leading to the life beyond.

But the son has forgotten the mother's ministrations now. Adrift from the moorings of home, he is cold, selfish, heartless, and "Mother" has no sacred meaning to the prodigal. She is "the old woman," wrinkled, grey, lame, and blind.

Pity her, oh Grave, and dry those tears that roll down her furrowed cheek! Have compassion on her sensitive heart, and offer it thy quiet rest, that it may forget how much it longed to be "dear mother" to the boy it cherished through a careless childhood, but in return for all this wealth of tenderness has only given back reproach.

A PLANTATION PREACHER.

The following is told by the Bishop of Tennessee, at the recent Church Congress, as showing the education of a plantation darkey. The Bishop said:

I was visiting a plantation, and the bell was rung, and the negroes numbering some five hundred, gathered in the parlors and piazzas of the house, belonging, unfortunately for himself, to a bachelor. After reading a chapter to them I preached, and said that I should hold a service the next day to baptize such as should be presented. I baptized between seventy and eighty, and after the service, I fell into conversation with "Uncle Tony," a plantation preacher. I asked him about various Christian doctrines, and finally said:

"And what about the resurrection?"

And with a very solemn face, he replied.

"You see master, intment is intment."

"Yes."

"Well, you see dere is a spiritual body, and dis dody made out of dus."

"Well, you see when the Angel Gabriel comes down from heaben, and goin up and down the Riber of Jordan, a blowin of his trumpet and the birds of Heaben singin, and de honey rainin down on all de hills of Heaben, he will bring the speritual body wid him down from Heaben and take dis here body up out ob de dus, and take de intment and rub it on, den stick togedder—and dere dey is."

SYSTEMATICALLY SOLD.—Two gentlemen from New York, one of whom had been in California nearly a year, and the other just arrived, were accidently overhead in the following conversation at the Sutter House, Sacramento. The new comer was lamenting his condition, when he asked the other if he had a family.

"Yes, sir, I have a wife and six children in New York, and never saw one of them."

After this, the couple sat a few moments in silence, and then the interrogator again commenced:

"Were you ever blind, sir?"

"No, sir."

Another lapse of time.

"Did I understand you to say, sir, that you had a wife and six children living in New York and had never seen one of them?

"Yes, sir; I so stated it."

Another and a long pause of silence. Then the interrogator inquired:

"How can it be, sir, that you never saw one of them?"

"Why," was the response, "one of them was born after I left."

"Oh! ah!" and a general laugh followed.

After that the first New Yorker was especially distinguished as the man who had six children and never saw one of them.

LIFE AND ITS END.—Remember for what purpose you were born, and through the whole of life, look at its end. Consider when that comes, in what you will put your trust. Not in the bubble of wordly vanity—it will be broken: not in wordly pleasures—they will be gone: not in great connexions they cannot serve you: not in wealth—you cannot carry it with you: not in rank—in the grave there is no distinction: not in the recollection of life spent in giddy conformity to the silly fashions of a thoughtless and wicked world; but in that of a life spent soberly, righteously and wisely, in this present world.

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, December 6, 1867.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE.

In another column appears a call for a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, in this place, on Tuesday next. In our experience, the meetings of the County Committee, have been utter failures. We have never known more than one-third of the members to attend, and some of those that did attend, merely looked in at the place of meeting and then took their departure. Now, to the County Committee are entrusted the interests of the party. This trust is placed in their hands by the County Convention. Hence, it is the duty of members of this Committee to attend the meetings called by its chairman, and to take part in its deliberations and the transaction of its business. Sometimes we hear a growl about a few "wire-workers" in Bedford managing the affairs of the party. Why, then, do not the country members of the Committee take a little more interest in those affairs? Suppose that the "wire-workers" in Bedford borough took no part in urging forward the Democratic column, what would you think of them? Wouldn't you consider them a set of worthless drones? These reflections occurred to us as we read the call of the Chairman of the County Committee, published elsewhere. We print them with the hope that they will put a little more life and mettle into the members of the Committee, and that they may have the desired effect of bringing out a full meeting on Tuesday next. Will not every member attend?

IMPEACHMENT!

A Majority of the Judiciary Committee Report in favor of Impeaching the President!

The Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives at Washington, to which were referred the charges against President Johnson, has reported in favor of impeachment! The Committee is composed of nine members, seven Radicals and two Democrats. Until lately three of the Radical members of the committee, opposed impeachment, and with the help of the two Democrats, formed an anti-impeachment majority. However, when the Committee was ready to report, one of the three Radicals who had opposed impeachment up to that time, suddenly "changed his views," and joined the four Radical impeachers, thus giving the latter a majority of the Committee, which then stood five for, to four against, impeachment. The five Radicals who favored impeachment, viz: Boutwell, of Massachusetts, Francis Thomas, of Maryland, Williams, of Pennsylvania, Lawrence, of Ohio, and Churchill, of New York, then signed a report setting forth their views; a minority report, declaring the President innocent of the charges preferred against him, but censuring him for not acting with the Radical party in its Reconstruction schemes, was signed by the two dissenting Radicals, Woodbridge, of Vermont, and Wilson, of Iowa, which latter is the chairman of the Judiciary Committee; and another minority report, vindicating the President politically, as well as legally, was made up by the two Democratic members of the Committee, Marshall, of Illinois, and Eldridge, of Wisconsin. Thus the Judiciary Committee, by a bare majority, has recommended the grave and dangerous step of impeachment. We do not believe that the National House of Representatives, will sustain the report of the majority of the Committee. Doubtless, they would if they dared. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. The only harm that is to be feared from this impeachment movement, is the effect it will have upon the business interests of the country. Financial matters are even now in a critical condition. Should the Radicals in Congress make a persistent effort to carry through their scheme to depose the President, there will be great peril of a monetary callapse. But, although the majority of Radical Congressmen may vote to sustain the report of the Judiciary Committee, there is a strong minority of their party, who, with the Democrats, will be able to defeat it. Hence, we consider Impeachment, the darling scheme of Radicalism, dead beyond the reach of revivification. It stinks already in the nostrils of the people, and it will not be long until the Radical leaders will pray that they may be delivered from "the body of this death."

THE next session of the Pennsylvania Legislature is approaching. We note this fact in order that J. Cessna, Esq., may not forget that he is to have that Prohibitory Liquor Law, which he was appointed to draft, ready for the consideration of our Pennsylvania Solons. Now, John, don't you forget!

GRANT BEFORE THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

We have before us a copy of the testimony given by Gen. U. S. Grant before the Judiciary Committee of the National House of Representatives. Gen. Grant testifies that President Johnson originally desired to punish General Lee and the other principal Confederate officers, as well as the civil leaders of the rebellion, but that he (Grant) dissuaded him from carrying out his intention. Grant says: "The President insisted that they should be punished. I told him not so long as they obeyed the laws and complied with the stipulations of their surrender. That was the ground I took." Further on he says that the President changed his views upon this subject, conforming them to those entertained by himself. To a question in relation to this change of views on the part of the President, Gen. Grant answered: "When I said that the President's views underwent a change, I meant that while I was contending for the rights which those paroled rebel soldiers had, he was insisting on it that they should be punished." Grant also testifies that he recommended the pardon of General Robert E. Lee, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston and other Confederates. But the following is, perhaps, more important than any other part of the General's evidence: "I will state here that before Mr. Lincoln's assassination the question about issuing a proclamation of some sort and establishing some sort of civil government there (in the revolted states) was up, and what was done then was continued after Mr. Johnson came into office." And again:

"Mr. Lincoln prior to his assassination had inaugurated a policy intended to restore those governments. I was present once before his murder when a plan was read. The plan adopted by Mr. Johnson was substantially the plan which had been inaugurated by Mr. Lincoln as the basis for his future action. I do not know that it was verbatim the same. I think the very paper which I heard read twice while Mr. Lincoln was President, was the one which was carried right through."

It thus appears from Gen. Grant's sworn statement, that President Johnson desired to bring the Confederate leaders, even the paroled Generals, to trial, and that Gen. Grant prevented him from executing his purpose. It appears, further, that Grant recommended many Confederates for pardon, among them the two most eminent military men connected with the rebellion, Generals Lee and Johnston. And last and most remarkable of all, it turns out, as stated under oath by Gen. Grant, that Johnson has only been trying to carry out Lincoln's policy! In the face of this testimony, how can the revilers and persecutors of the President, stand up and face the American people?—How can they prate about "Johnson's treachery," or denounce the men who support him, when they find that Grant himself, their beau ideal of a patriot, acknowledges, under oath, that he (Grant) dissuaded Johnson from his purpose of "punishing traitors and making treason odious?" Nay, how can they say one word against Johnson's "policy," when they discover that Grant has sworn that Johnson had merely undertaken to carry out the plan of the late lamented Lincoln? If, after this, the Radicals continue their opposition to the President, it follows, as a logical conclusion, that Grant is taken by them to have committed perjury, and Lincoln to have been guilty of "disloyalty."

PORTENTOUS SIGNS.

The Philadelphia Press, Harrisburg Telegraph, Franklin Repository, Somerset Herald & Whig, and many other quondam Radical papers in this State, have recently changed their politics. These papers all support Grant for President, Grant, the man who interfered to prevent President Johnson from "punishing traitors and making treason odious," Grant, the man who recommended Lee and Joe Johnston for pardon, Grant, the man who swears that Johnson is carrying out the policy of Abraham Lincoln, dec'd. The whole Radical party of this county, too, were converted at last Court. The Radical mass meeting at the Court House, on Tuesday night, 19th ult., unanimously adopted a resolution favoring the nomination of this endorser of applications for the pardon of "traitors," this witness who swears that Johnson is only a copy of Lincoln. With such wholesale accessions to the ranks of the "Copperheads" and "Northern Traitors," what will become of the country? Is it not in imminent peril? Will not "greenbacks" be abolished, nay, will not the "Maryland militia" invade Pennsylvania and lay waste our farms, and despoil our houses? To arms! to arms! ye Radical braves! There's treason in the camp, —treason! treason! treason!

THE Bedford Inquirer doesn't hoist Grant. What's the matter? Does that paper dare to set at defiance the will of the assembled multitude of Tuesday night of last Court week?

HA! HA! HA! SUCH A NOMINEE!

And now we must jog the memory of our neighbors, the editors of the Franklin Repository. Do you remember, gentlemen, how vigorously you scolded Mr. Johnson for failing to "punish traitors and to make treason odious? Do you remember how you raged and stormed because he adopted a certain policy with regard to the seceded states? You cannot have forgotten. Nay, even now you rant and bluster about "my policy" and "Johnson's treachery." Well, how is it with you now, when your candidate for President in 1868, swears before the Judiciary Committee of Congress, that Johnson wanted to "punish traitors," &c., but that he (Grant) prevented him from so doing? How is it with you, now, when this same Grant swears that he recommended the pardon of Lee and Joe Johnston and other leading "traitors?" Nay, how is it with you, when this pet candidate of yours, this Grant, swears that Johnson is endeavoring to "carry through" the identical plan adopted by the late lamented "Government" Abraham Lincoln? Come, now, gentlemen of the Repository, do tell us how you "feel" on these questions! Your friends would like to know how you reconcile your opposition to Johnson with your support of Grant, the father of Johnson's policy; how you can damn the President with your Radical anathemas, for pardoning rebels, and support Grant for recommending the same rebels for pardon; how you can hunt down and persecute Johnson for carrying out a policy which Grant testifies, under oath, is the same that was adopted by your own Lincoln. We would like to see the logical prestigiation by which such feats are accomplished. Presto! change! Now you see it, and now you don't see it! In this column the Repository consigns Johnson to everlasting infamy, in that it lauds Grant, the preceptor of Johnson, to the seventh heaven! Signor Blitz, Professor Anderson, and all the rest of the conjuring brotherhood, look to your laurels! The great prestigiator and professor of Radical legerdemain, who presides over the columns of the Franklin Repository, "is coming!"

THE Inquirer might as well answer that oft propounded question of ours, Is it in favor of the establishment of Negro Suffrage in Pennsylvania? As one of its editors has publicly declared himself in the affirmative on this question, and as the elections are over and a plain and honest answer could not injure its party just now, we look for an early forth-coming of the long expected reply.

GEN. HANCOCK has thrown a bombshell into the Radical ranks by declaring that the American people must still be free, that we are still entitled to the right of the Habeas Corpus, trial by jury, protection in person and property, and other franchises lately supposed by Radical politicians to be obsolete. Three cheers and a "tiger" for Hancock!

SOME HOW-or-other, the negroes in South Carolina failed to come up to the Radical scratch. Although outnumbering the whites two to one, they did not carry the Reconstruction Convention, a majority of the registered voters not being polled. Is it possible that General Apathy has got down among the South Carolina "niggers"?

NEW HAMPSHIRE is coming! The Democrats carried Portsmouth by 50 majority, and came within 60 of carrying Dover, at the late town elections. Last year the former gave nearly 200, and the latter over 400, Radical majority.

Do unto others as you wouldn't do unto yourselves. This is the morality of Radicalism. Force Negro Supremacy upon the South, but vote down Negro Suffrage in Ohio, Kansas and Minnesota. Magnificent Christians, eh?

WHAT has become of Phil. Sheridan? that "bustin'" Radical martyr, the Duke of Orleans? We hear nothing of him since the elections. Why don't his friends keep him on parade?—Have they no more use for him?

—Gen. Hancock, on taking charge of the Fifth Military District, on the 20th, declared in special orders that henceforward the civil authority should be held superior to the military in all cases except armed insurrection or forcible resistance to the laws. He announces that "the great principles of American liberty still are the lawful inheritance of this people and ever should be. The right of trial by jury, the habeas corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of speech, and the natural rights of person, the rights of property, must be preserved. Free institutions, while they are essential to the prosperity and happiness of the people, always furnish the strongest inducements to peace and order. Crimes and offenses committed in this district must be referred to the consideration and judgment of the regular civil authorities, and those tribunals will be supported in their lawful jurisdiction." There is a notable contrast between this commencement and that of Grand Duke Philip.

For the Gazette.

"THE newspaper is a sermon for the thoughtful, a library for the poor, and a blessing to everybody. Lord Broughham called it the best public instructor."

Mr Editor:—The above extract is taken from the last issue of the Inquirer, whose editors have themselves extracted the saying from some other paper. We fully agree with them, on certain conditions. "The newspaper is a sermon for the thoughtful and a blessing to everybody," "the best public instructor." This is fully acknowledged, provided the newspaper is a vehicle of truthful, sound information; but if it becomes a propagator of falsehood and calumny, it ceases to be a blessing to everybody, a public instructor. Now, "the Inquirer" is an illustration of this doctrine. For in the very same issue in which it truly sets forth the glorious prerogatives of a true newspaper, it shows its own utter want of them. It has in this issue published the basest lies, the foulest calumnies, against an un-offending portion of our fellow-citizens, witness the article which it has published under the heading, "A cage of Unclean Birds." It is no excuse that that article of defamation, was copied from another bigoted paper; for, according to the old adage, "The receiver is as bad as the thief." So the receiver, or endorser, of printed lies, or forged crimes, of blackest calumnies, against any individual or community, is as bad as the original inventor.

It is truly strange and worthy of all reprobation, that a paper designed for politics, a paper that we take to be informed about the news of the day and important political occurrences, should go out of its sphere and dabble in religious, or rather irreligious, denunciations, in exciting unchristian feelings, and uncharitable sentiments against a religious community. In conclusion we entirely coincide with the extract which we have taken from the Inquirer's columns, for the heading of this communication; but, we must, at the same time, observe that though the Inquirer, on this point, is sound in doctrine, it is rotten in practice. If the Inquirer wants to be a true paper, viz: a sermon for the thoughtful, a library for the poor and a blessing to everybody, it must cease publishing lies and calumnies against any religious body—or any body whatsoever.

The Indian Troubles.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30.—A North Platte dispatch dated the 27 instant, says that "Spotted Tail with three hundred of his tribe have been here since Saturday, waiting the arrival of the commissioners. Half a dozen of the Ogallallas are also here, with their chief Blue Horse.

"Spotted Tail says that no more Indians will come. He is anxious to get the annuities for his tribe, and return to his camp at Willow Creek. In a speech to-day Spotted Tail said he was unwilling to go to Washington until peace had been made with the Northern Indians, and the treaty signed. He is willing to go to Fort Phil Kearney in the spring and sign the treaty with the Indians, all together.

"Generals Harney and Stanborn, and Indian Agents Beamas and Jack Howland arrived to-night, by the way of Cheyenne.

"Spotted Tail has since expressed his willingness to visit Washington, if allowed to take his five wives with him.

"General Harney's aid, Col. Tappan, will remain over to satisfy the clamor of the Indians for goods.

"The Northern Indians are still belligerent. On the 6th inst., a sutler's train, escorted by Lieut. Shirly and forty soldiers, was attacked at Fenian Creek, twenty miles above Fort Phil. Kearney, by Red Cloud's band. Lieut. Shirley was shot through the foot, and two men killed. The Indians ran off six wagons, containing goods valued at $20,000. They numbered 300, and some of the Crow tribe were among them.

"On the 15th fourteen Indians led by Big Bear's sons, came within two miles of Fort Laramie and ran off 70 heads of horses and mules.

"The herders followed the band for forty-five miles accompanied by Capt. Welles's company of the 2d Cavalry, but were not able to overhaul them.

"The Indians are on the war-path, and it is supposed are waiting for the soldiers, expecting to decoy them into an ambush."

"The Old Capitol Prison."

We wish somebody would give the public an impartial, accurate account of what took place during the war in the Old Capitol Prison. Think of American citizens being snatched up and held in confinement one, two, and even three months, denied all communication with their friends, and charged extortionate prices for what they desired. And when the facts are investigated, no substantial charges are made out. Think of prisoners not being permitted to hold converse with their counsel unless in the presence of a detective.—Think of men being persecuted by their jailor until in sheer desperation they commit suicide. We believe if the people understood a tithe of the secrets of the Old Capitol Prison, we would have much less said about the enormities of Libby Prison.—Washington Express.

The New York Election.

The Tribune (Republican) gives the full official vote of New York cast at the recent election. The Democrats polled 373,826 votes, and the Republicans 324,017, a Democratic majority of 49,869. As compared with the election of 1866, when the Republicans had 13,789 majority, the total vote has fallen off 42,298, whilst the Democratic vote has increased 21,369.

—The trial of Jefferson Davis, at Richmond, has again been postponed on account, as it appears, of the absence of Chief Justice Chase. On the meeting of the court last week, Judge Underwood charged the grand jury, and, as far as reported the indications are that he did so in a much more unexceptionable manner than has been his wont. He cautioned them that no party or class prejudices should influence their deliberations, but if it should be brought to their knowledge that any one had committed treason, he must be indicted. It is supposed that a new indictment is to be prepared in Mr. Davis' case. The government, through its counsel, declared its purpose to try the case some time during the present term, after the adjournment of the Supreme Court, when Judge Chase could be present; and the counsel for Mr. Davis, while asserting their readiness to proceed at once, having agreed to the proposition for a postponement until the 20th of March, the court ordered the trial for that time and extended Mr. Davis' bond accordingly, with the understanding that, if Judge Chase could not then preside, the period of absence should extend until the term following.

—This community was thrown into an intense state of excitement on last Thursday evening, Oct. 31st, when it became known that Miss Antoinette Cline, a beautiful and highly respectable young lady of sixteen, had been outraged by a negro, not more than a quarter of a mile from this city, about sundown of the above day, as she was on her way home, a short distance from this place. Miss Cline observed the negro approaching her, and becoming frightened, ran, but was soon overtaken by the scoundrel, who threw her to the ground and accomplished his hellish purpose, after which he quickly fled. The young lady, when discovered, was taken to the nearest house, and as soon as she was able to state the facts, parties started in pursuit of the villain and succeeded in capturing him on Saturday last, and was fully identified by Miss Cline. The negro calls himself Ed. Jones, and says he is from Georgia. He was committed to jail for further examination, which took place on Monday last, before Justice Simmons, who committed him for the action of the Grand Jury.—Fred'k (Md.) Union.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED whose sufferings have been protracted from hideous causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits or melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

AMERICAN
WATCHES.

The true value of Machinery applied to Watchmaking is not that by its use Watches are made rapidly, but that they are made correctly. Very few people know why a Waltham Watch should be superior to any other. In the first place, at Waltham the Watch is regarded as only a machine, to be constructed like any other machine, on mechanical principles. If the watches are good, it is because the machinery is good. Of course there must be no defect in the principle or plan of the movement—no mistake in the sizes or shapes of the pieces of which it is composed—nothing wanting in their properties, and no error in their positions. These points once thoroughly settled, it rests wholly with the machinery, constructed with infinite diversity of form and function expressly for the purpose, to produce the finished pieces. By means of multyplying guages and microscopes, tests and inspection for the detection of wear in the cutting tools, and for faults and flaws in steel or stone are made to accompany the work in every stage from beginning to end. As a necessary result, the watch goes together a perfect machine. Every part is found to fit properly in its place. Every pin may be pushed till it pinches, and every screw turned home. Ins ead of a sluggish and feeble action, the balance, even under the pressure of the lightest mainspring, vibrates with a wide and free motion, and the beat has the clear ringing sound always characteristic of the Waltham Watch. The machine is a time-keeper from the start.

This system of watchmaking is unknown in foreign countries, and is entirely original with the Waltham Company. The Company claim that by it they produce watches that cannot be equalled for every quality which makes a watch valuable. Simple in plan and correct in principle, the movement is not only beautifully finished, substantial, accurate and cheap, but is uniform in the minutest details, not easily damaged, and when repaired always as good as new. There are different grades of finish in the different varieties of watches made by the Waltham Company, as there are different sizes and shapes to suit all tastes and means; but every Watch that bears the genuine trade-mark of "WALTHAM" is guarantied to be a good one, and nobody need be afraid to buy it.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS, are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp

Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

DRY GOODS of all kinds and descriptions were being offered at greatly reduced rates by merchants in Philadelphia, last week.

TO ECONOMISE is to draw in as much as possible. Some of our ladies apply this art to their person, and the result is a very small waist!

THE SWINISH SEASON is upon us in both fact and fat! Shrill screams of ponderous pokers drown out the chorus of chanticleers; while sausages, scrapple and souse are standard bills of fare.

CHURCH ROBBED.—The Dunkard Church in Snake Spring Valley, was entered some time ago, by some burglarious scoundrel, and robbed of plates, spoons and other articles contained therein. Truly, the business of thieving must be dull, when it comes to be practised in a church.

ANOTHER.—On Sunday night last, another slight snow fell and on Monday was supplemented with a few desultory flakes. Winter has made several desperate efforts to storm the works of Autumn, and will, doubtless, unfold his white banners in triumph, as soon as the trenches freeze over.

REGULATOR.—In the midst of the excitement attendant upon the establishment of new Book stores, etc., it will be well for our people not to forget the "Regulator," where boots and shoes, queensware, groceries, notions, &c., are sold cheaper than ever. Call and see for yourselves.

The robber Time, that steals the sweetness from all fruits and flowers, is baffled by Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus." Its aroma is less perishable than that of foreign extract, essence or toilet water, and incomparably more delightful.—Hartford Courier.

NEW BOOK STORE.—Our friend, Mr. John Keeffe, is about opening a new Book, Stationery and Picture store, in Shafer's building, on Julianna Street. John has purchased a large stock of School Books, Stationery, Pictures, &c., &c., at prices which will enable him to sell very low. There is room in this place for two good Book stores, and we hope that our friend Keeffe, as proprietor of one of them, will receive a large share of the patronage of our readers.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.—All who contemplate availing themselves of the benefit of the Bankrupt Law, must do so previous to March 2, 1868, as the fifty per cent. clause takes effect on that day. All claims against a bankrupt who applies after next March will, as a matter of course, be proven. Section 33 of the law, in relation to the fifty per cent., is as follows: "And in all proceedings in bankruptcy, commenced after one year from the time this act shall go into operation, no discharge shall be granted to a debtor whose assets do not pay fifty per cent. of the claims against his estate, unless the assent in writing, of a majority in number and value of his creditors, who have proved their claims, is filed in the case, at or before the time of application for discharge."

THE WASHINGTON LIBRARY COMPANY of Philadelphia, is established in the confidence and affections of the people. The reason is obvious. The design is worthy, and creditable to the patriotic hearts who are laboring to benefit a too much neglected class.—The funds go into responsible hands, and the public have no fears that they will be mis-directed. The plan adopted satisfies the scruples of the most conscientious, and has the endorsement of eminent legal authority. It is by its distinctive features entirely removed from the taint of catch-penny schemes which have so often been the means of imposing on the public. It gives to purchasers of its stock a full equivalent for the consideration paid, besides equal and impartial participation in a great distribution of presents, worth in the aggregate $300,000. All its transactions are open and above board. It has no concealment, and the reputation of the managers is such that they cannot afford to be dishonest in this transaction. Read advertisement.

NEGRO OUTRAGES.—The papers from all parts of the country are filled with accounts of the most revolting outrages upon women and children by negroes. A brutal, sensual race, and within the first year of the agitation of the question of their right to social equality and suffrage, we find them rioting in licentious violence. It does really seem to us that the repeated outrages of the negroes upon white females must soon wear out the patience of white men. It is not impossible that the white people will become so incensed, if these infamous crimes continue, that terrible vengeance will be visited upon the ruffians who perpetrate them.

OUR POSTAGE STAMPS.—It is stated that the post office department is experimenting on a new style of stamps, which are intended to replace those now in use. Nothing is yet known about the special features of the proposed stamps, but it is safe to say that they will be neater in appearance than the present issue. Any change in the artistic appearance of the two and three cent stamps will necessarily be an improvement. The picture of Jackson, which appears on the former, makes the old hero have the appearance of wearing a wig several sizes too large, and gives to his countenance an expression that he never could have had except when Packenham was moving toward him at New Orleans. Our postage stamps are all inferior to those of France and England, both in beauty of design and nicety of execution, and it is to be hoped that the postoffice department, in making the change now proposed, will give us stamps that we need not be ashamed to send to any part of the world.

A HIT AT THE TIMES.—The following lines from the pen of one who frequently worships at the shrine of the Muses, is a fair hit at one of the follies of the age:

For the Gazette.

WRANGLING.

Strange world we live in!
Very strange!
One to the other won't give in—
Very strange!
Each with the other vies—
"Come with us each faction cries!"
Each about the other lies;
Very strange!
The churches are a perfect split,
Very strange!
Their notions don't each other fit;
Very strange!
Bigotry's the order of the day—
With much unkindness each repay—
Each will no good of the other say,
Very strange!
The preachers preach "good will."
Very strange!
But instead, that will is ill,
Very strange!
"Peace on earth," the Saviour taught;
With every good His mission fraught—
How strange that He is set at naught,
Very strange!
All alike, from priest to layman,
Very strange!
Each a noisy, boisterous prayman,
Very strange!
Fight and quarrel with the others—
(Perhaps the training of their mothers,)
When all should be so many brothers,
Very strange!
Each one thinks his church the best,
Very strange!
And pours invective on the rest,
Very strange!
They malign, back-bite, and tattle,
With bitter tongues in constant rattle;
They gore each other as do cattle,
Very strange!
But the enigma stranger yet,
Very strange!
I the solution fain would get,
Very strange!
While each on each in judgment sit,
And rancor don't abate a whit,
That e'en these very factions split,
Very strange!
I half suspect—perhaps I'm right,
'Tis not so strange!
The reason why they quarrel and fight,
'Tis not so strange!
E'en though they pray by "fits and starts."
Their "faith and works" are sep'rate parts—
Religion's dead within their hearts,
Very, very strange!

ALMOST A SWINDLE.—One day last week an individual who called himself Parker, dressed in plain and neat gray clothing, appeared in our usually quiet town, and after looking around awhile as though he were a gentleman of leisure, stepped into one of our Banks and purchased some stamps in order as he said to stamp some papers connected with the sale of a machine to manufacture Sorghum Molasses. A short time afterwards he went into the Prothonotary's office with two promissory notes, each for two hundred dollars, purporting to be signed by two rich farmers of our county, one of whom resides in Brothersvalley, and the other in Stonycreek township. He desired the clerk to show him the signatures of the two persons who had given him the notes, saying that he desired to dispose of the notes and was anxious to compare the signatures to the notes with the signatures of these men, which he had no doubt, he could find on the records in the office. The signatures were wanted to show the purchasers that all was right. He, however, found nothing, and left the office without obtaining any information. He then met a couple of our citizens who sometimes purchase notes, and after some considerable negotiation sold the notes to them at a right good shave, and got the cash. He stated that he intended leaving town in the morning to attend to some matters at another place, but would be back in about ten days to sell more of his machines. Meanwhile one of the purchasers of the notes learned of the effort he had made in the Prothonotary's office to obtain the signatures of those two farmers, which of itself was deemed a suspicious circumstance. He further noticed that the gentleman, instead of waiting until morning, was making arrangements to leave town the same evening, having hired a livery stable keeper to take him away immediately. This excited further suspicion, and the return of the money was demanded. He handed it over without much objection, saying that he would be back in about ten days and that meanwaile information could be had as to the correctness of the notes.

It now appears that both notes were forgeries, and that this man had been to see these farmers and offered them Sorghum seed gratis, asking them to give him their post office address, and insisting that they should write their names in a book he kept for that purpose. In this manner he obtained their signatures. This was certainly the coolest transaction we have heard of for some time and should be a warning to our farmers to be more cautious to whom they give their signatures. We have no doubt our monied friends will be more circumspect in the future.—Somerset Democrat.

Miscellaneous.

500 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD,
Running West From Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company have built a longer line of railroad in the last eighteen months than was ever built by any other company in the same time, and they will continue the work with the same energy until it is completed. The Western Division is being pushed rapidly eastward from Sacramento by the Central Pacific Company of California, and it is expected that to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. More than one-third of the work has already been done, more than one-third of the whole line is now in running order, and more laborers are now employed upon it than ever before. More than FORTY MILLION DOLLARS IN MONEY have already been expended by the two powerful companies that have undertaken the enterprise, and there is no lack of funds for its most vigorous prosecution. When the United States Government found it necessary to secure the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, to develop and protect its own interests, it gave the Companies authorized to build it such ample aid as should render its speedy completion beyond a doubt. The available means of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

THE ENTIRE GRAND LINE

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS

Having thirty years to run and bearing six per cent. currency interest at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; thence at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these bonds is paid by the United States government, which also pays the company one-half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien. The claims against the government since April of the current year amount to four and one-half times this interest.

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon Oakes Ames, Member of the U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these bonds to the Company in strict accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will not be worth less than $1.50 per acre at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $5,000,000,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of the building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expenses except surveying, have been made with responsible parties (who have already finished over 500 miles), at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock, to an amount tha shall not be less than $5,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Pacific Company to be $90,000 per mile.

THE TOTAL COST OF ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,205,012
186 miles at $90,000	16,740,000
Add discounts on bonds, surveys, &c.	4,500,000
Amount	$83,415,012

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market, we have as the

AVAILABLE CASH RESOURCES FOR BUILDING ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES:

U. S Bonds	$29,328,000
First Mortgage Bonds	29,328,000
Capital stock paid in on the work now done	5,369 750
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1.50 per acre	21,120,000
Total	$85,145.750

The company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for construction. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to capital stock.

Active inquiry has already been made for a portion of these lands, and arrangements are now proposed to offer a part of them for sale. While their whole value will not be available for some years to come, they will remain a very important source of revenue to the Company. The lands of the Illinois Central Railroad Company are selling at from $3 to $12 per acre, and other land-grant companies in the West are receiving equal prices for similar properties.

FUTURE BUSINESS.

The most skeptical have never expressed a doubt that when the Union Pacific Railroad is finished the immense business that must flow over it, as the only railroad connecting the two grand divisions of the North American continent, will be one of the wonders of railway transportation; and as it will have no competitor it can always charge remunerated rates.

EARNINGS FROM WAY BUSINESS.

During the quarter ending July 31, an average of 325 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad was in operation. The Superintendent's Report shows the following result:

EARNINGS.

Passengers, Freight, Telegraph and Mails	$723,755 54
Transportation of Contractor's Materials and Men	479 283 41
Total	$1,203,038 41

EXPENSES.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by
E. M. BRUCE,
18 N. Seventh Street, Philadelphia.
☞ Send for descriptive circular and price list.
The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cottage Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C HEINTZ. Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
